Foreword

WITH a careful, and, we may add, an exhaustive study of the spiritual needs of the Church, and a conscientious inquiry into the comparative worth of hymns, new and old, the Commission, appointed by the General Conference, has accomplished its task.

Many of the old hymns of the Church, through which the majestic voice of the Christian centuries is heard, have been retained, preserving the continuity of the best thought and the most sacred aspirations of historic Christianity, while, at the same time, upon this venerable stock of immortal hymnology have been grafted some newer hymns of today, in which the expanding life of the Church may find an increasingly adequate expression.

The Commission never lost sight of the importance of preserving and strengthening the distinctively Evangelical tone of the Hymn Book, expressive of the faith of our Church, her devout and fervent spirit of worship, and her insistence upon a vital Christian experience, as well as a life of Christlike service.

We are confident that the Congregations of the entire Church will make use of these great hymns. And now, praying that our Zion may be wonderfully blessed of God in singing these sacred lyrics, we commend the Hymnal to the churches.

Your servants in Christ,

J. C. Brecht, Jr.

D. P. Spang

J. Heinmiller

L. A. Seager

M. S. Mays

Bishops of the Evangelical Church.

2. OLD HUNDREDTH L. M.

1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise,
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord,
Eternal truth attends Thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring,
In songs of praise divinely sing;
The great salvation loud proclaim;
And shout for joy the Saviour's name.

4 In every land begin the song;
To every land the strains belong;
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

William C. Dix, 1856

Arr. fr. Conrad Köcher, 1838

1. As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold,
 2. As with joy-ful steps they sped To that low-ly man-ger-bed,
 3. As they of-fered gifts most rare At that man-ger rude and bare,
 4. Ho-ly Je-sus, ev-'ry day Keep us in the nar-row way;
 5. In the heavenly coun-try bright, Need they no cre-a-ted light;

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright,
 There to bend the knee be-fore Him whom heav'n and earth a-dore;
 So may we with ho-ly joy, Pure and free from sin's al-loy,
 And, when earth-ly things are past, Bring our ran-somed souls at last Thou its light, its joy, its crown, Thou its Sun which goes not down;

So, most gracious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led to Thee.
 So may we with will-ing feet Ev-er seek the mer-cy-seat.
 All our costliest treasures bring, Christ, to Thee our heav'nly King.
 Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glo-ry hide.
 There for-ev-er may we sing Al-le-lu-ias to our King. A-men.

 A - bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hov - 'ring wing,
 Look now! for glad and gold-en hours Come swift - ly on the wing;
 When peace shall o - ver all the earth Its an - cient splen-dors fling,

1. A - las! and did my Sav - iour bleed, And did my Sovereign die!

James Montgomery, 1820

Arr. by Benjamin Carr, 1826

1. Go to dark Geth-sem-a-ne, Ye that feel the temp-ter's power;
2. Fol-low to the judgment-hall; View the Lord of life arraigned;
3. Cal-vary's mournful mountain climb; There, a-dor-ing at His feet,
4. Ear-ly hast-en to the tomb Where they laid His breathless clay;

Your Re-deem-er's con-flict see, Watch with Him one bit-ter hour,
O the worm-wood and the gall! O the pangs His soul sustained!
Mark that mir-a-cle of time, God's own sac-ri-fice com-plete:
All is sol-i-tude and gloom; Who hath ta-ken Him a-way?

Turn not from His griefs a-way, Learn of Je-sus Christ to pray.
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss; Learn of Him to bear the cross.
"It is finished!" hear Him cry; Learn of Je-sus Christ to die.
Christ is risen; He meets our eyes; Sav-iour, teach us so to rise. A-men.

117. GOUNOD 878777.

1 One there is, above all others,
 Well deserves the name of Friend;
 His is love beyond a brother's,
 Costly, free, and knows no end:
 They, who once His kindness prove,
 Find it everlasting love.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
 Could or would have shed His blood?
 But our Jesus died to have us

Reconciled in Him to God:
 This was boundless love indeed!
 Jesus is a Friend in need.

3 O for grace our hearts to soften!
 Teach us, Lord, at length to love:
 We alas! forget too often
 What a Friend we have above;
 But when home our souls are brought,
 We will love Thee as we ought.

127. MULLEN 878747.

Thomas Kelly, 1809

Timothy R. Matthews

1. Look, ye saints, the sight is glo-rious, See the "Man of Sorrows" now;
 2. Crown the Sav-our, an-gels crown Him; Rich the trophies Je-sus brings;
 3. Sin-ners in de-ris-ion crowned Him, Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
 4. Hark! those bursts of ac-cla-ma-tion! Hark! those loud triumphant chords!

From the fight re-turned vic-to-rious, Ev-'ry knee to Him shall bow:
 In the seat of pow'r en-throne Him, While the vault of heav-en rings:
 Saints and an-gels crowd a-round Him, Own His ti-tle, praise His name:
 Je-sus takes the high-est sta-tion; Oh, what joy the sight af-fords!

Crown Him! Crown Him! Crowns be-come the Vic-tor's brow.
 Crown Him! Crown Him! Crown the Sav-our King of kings.
 Crown Him! Crown Him! Spread a-broad the Vic-tor's fame.
 Crown Him! Crown Him! King of kings, and Lord of lords. A-men.

128. MULLEN 878747.

1 Jesus, holiest, tenderest, dearest,
 Lovliest, lowliest, most sublime!
 Glorious King of kings, yet nearest
 To Thy people through all time,
 Still abiding
 Mighty in each age, each clime!

2 Change, so potent through the ages,
 Hath put forth no power on Thee;
 Sages have supplanted sages,
 Thrones have been and ceased to be;
 Still Thou teachest,
 Still abides Thy sovereignty.

3 Never was our Helper nearer
 In the strife with sin and wrong,
 Never was our Brother dearer,
 Never was our King more strong;
 Never held'st Thou
 Fuller sway o'er life and song.

4 Still the same but more victorious,
 With a wider, deeper sway;
 Lord than yesterday more glorious,
 King more mighty than to-day;
 Thus for ever!
 More our life, our strength, our stay!

1. Deep are the wounds which sin has made; Where shall the sin-ner find a cure?
 2. But can no sov-ereign balm be found, And is no kind phy-si-cian nigh,
 3. There is a great Phy-si-cian near; Look up, O faint-ing soul, and live:
 4. See, in the Sav-iour's dy-ing blood, Life, health, and bliss, a-bund-ant flow;

In vain, a-las! is nature's aid; The work exceeds her ut-most power.
 To ease the pain, and heal the wound, Ere life and hope for-ev-er fly?
 See, in His heav'nly smiles appear Such help as na-ture can-not give.
 And in that sac-ri-fi-cial flood A balm for all thy grief and woe. A-men.

 3. Thy work a-lone, O Christ, Can ease this weight of sin;

Charles Wesley, 1741

Simeon B. Marsh, 1834

1. Sin-ners, turn; why will ye die? God, your Mak-er, asks you why;
 2. Sin-ners, turn; why will ye die? God, your Sav-iour, asks you why;
 3. Sin-ners, turn; why will ye die? God, the Spir-it, asks you why;

God, who did your be-ing give, Made you with Him-self to live;
 Christ, who did your souls re-trieve, Died Him-self that ye might live.
 He who all your lives hath strove, Urged you to em-brace His love.

He the fa-tal cause de-mands; Asks the work of His own hands;
 Will you let Him die in vain, Cru-ci-fy your Lord a-gain?
 Will ye not His grace re-ceive? Will ye still re-fuse to live?

Why, ye thankless creatures, why Will you cross His love and die?
 Why, ye ransomed sin-ners, why Will ye slight His grace, and die?
 Why, you long-sought sinners, why Will you grieve your God, and die? A-men.

 2. Fruit-less years with grief re-call-ing, Hum-bly I con-fess my sin;

 On that sac-ri-fice re-ly-ing, Now I look in hope to Thee:

Long from Thee my foot-steps stray-ing, Thorn-y proved the way I trod;
 Free-ly now to Thee I prof-fer This re-lent-ing heart of mine;
 Fa-ther, take me; all for-giv-ing, Fold me to Thy lov-ing breast;

Wea-ry come I now, and pray-ing, Take me to Thy love, my God.

William H. Jude, 1874

1. Pure and free from all cor - rup - tion, Lamb of God! I long to be;
 2. Here in hum - ble con - se - cra - tion, All I have to Thee I give;
 3. Fill my heart with pure af - fec - tion; Make me ho - ly in Thy sight;
 4. Come, Thou au - thor of sal - va - tion, Thro' Thy blood, O make me free;

To re - deem me from de - struc - tion Thou didst die on Cal - va - ry.
 Give me now Thy full sal - va - tion, Help me for Thy - self to live.
 Bring me to Thine own per - fec - tion; Lead me ev - er in Thy light.
 Fix me firm on faith's foun - da - tion, In Thy love now per - fect me. A - men.

5 At Thy feet I wait, believing,
 Hear, O hear my humble cry;
 Grant me, through my faith receiving,
 Perfect victory from on high.

6 Lord, I trust Thee without doubting,
 Lord, I praise Thee, I am Thine!
 In my inmost soul I'm shouting
 "I am Christ's, and He is mine!"

First Tune

Charles Wesley, 1747

Thomas Haynes Bayley

1. Love di-vine, all love ex-cel-ling, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down!
 2. Breathe, O breathe Thy lov-ing Spir-it In - to ev - 'ry troub-led breast!
 3. Come, al-might-y to de-liv-er, Let us all Thy life re-ceive;
 4. Fin-ish, then, Thy new cre-a-tion; Pure and spot-less let us be;

Fix in us Thy hum-ble dwell-ing, All Thy faith-ful mer-cies crown.
 Let us all in Thee in-her-it, Let us find that sec-ond rest.
 Sud-den-ly re-turn, and nev-er, Nev-er more Thy tem-ples leave.
 Let us see Thy great sal-va-tion, Per-fect-ly re-stored in Thee:

Je-sus, Thou art all com-pas-sion, Pure, un-bound-ed love Thou art;
 Take a-way our bent to sin-ning; Al - pha and O - me - ga be;
 Thee we would be al-ways bless-ing, Serve Thee as Thy hosts a - bove,
 Changed from glo-ry in - to glo - ry, Till in heav'n we take our place,

Vis-it us with Thy sal-va-tion; En-ter ev-'ry trem-bling heart.
 End of faith, as its be-gin-ning, Set our hearts at lib-er - ty.
 Pray, and praise Thee, without ceasing, Glo-ry in Thy per-fect love.
 Till we cast our crowns be-fore Thee, Lost in won-der, love, and praise. A-men.

Hugh Stowell, 1923

Thomas Hastings, 1842

1. From ev - 'ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev - 'ry swell-ing tide of woes,
2. There is a place where Je-sus sheds The oil of glad-ness on our heads,
3. There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend;

There is a calm, a sure retreat: 'Tis found be-neath the mer-cy-seat.
A place than all be-side more sweet: It is the blood-bought mer-cy-seat.
Tho' sundered far, by faith they meet Around one common mercy-seat. A-men.

4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed;
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

5 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet
While glory crowns the mercy-seat.

1. Prayer is ap-point-ed to con-vey The blessings God de-signs to give;
2. If pain af-flict, or wrongs op-press; If cares dis-tract, or fears dis-may;

Long as they live should Christians pray, For only while they pray they live.
If guilt de-ject; if sin dis-tress; In ev-'ry case, still watch and pray. A-men.

3 'Tis prayer supports the soul that's weak;
Though thought be broken, language lame,
Pray, if thou canst or canst not speak;
But pray with faith in Jesus' name.

4 Depend on Him; thou canst not fail;
Make all thy wants and wishes known;
Fear not; His merits must prevail:
Ask but in faith, it shall be done.

248. OLIVET 6646664.

Ray Palmer, 1830

Lowell Mason, 1832

1. My faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Cal-va-ry, Sav-our di-vine;
2. May Thy rich grace im-part Strength to my fainting heart, My zeal in-spire;
3. While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs a-round me spread, Be Thou my guide;
4. When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold, sullen stream Shall o'er me

Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt a-way,
 As Thou hast died for me, O may my love to Thee
 Bid dark-ness turn to day; Wipe sor-row's tears a-way,
 Blest Sav-our, then, in love, Fear and dis-tress re-move;

O let me from this day Be whol-ly Thine.
 Pure, warm, and change-less be, A liv-ing fire.
 Nor let me ev-er stray From Thee a-side.

249. HESPERUS L. M.

Elizabeth Reed

1. O that I could for-ev-er dwell, De-light-ed at the Saviour's feet;
2. The world shut out from all my soul, And heav'n brought in with all its bliss,
3. This is the hid-den life I prize, A life of pen-i-ten-tial love;
4. Thus would I live till na-ture fail, And all my for-mer sins for-sake;

Prayer, Intercession and Praise

Be-hold the form I love so well, And all His ten-der words re-peat!
 O is there aught, from pole to pole, One moment to compare with this?
 When most my follies I de-spise, And raise my highest thoughts above;
 Then rise to God with-in the veil, And of e-ter-nal joys par-take. A-men.

250. VIOLA 777777.

 3. Hear and save me, gra-cious Lord! For my trust is in Thy word;

For His sake, whose blood I plead, Hear me in my hour of need;
 Leave me not a-gain to stray; Leave me not the tempter's prey;
 Wash me from the stain of sin, That Thy peace may rule with-in:

On-ly hide not now Thy face, God of all-suf-fi-cient grace.

James Montgomery, 1818

Isaac Baker Woodbury

1. Prayer is the soul's sin-cere de - sire, Ut - tered or un - ex - pressed,
 2. Prayer is the bur - den of a sigh, The fall - ing of a tear;
 3. Prayer is the sim-plest form of speech That in - fant lips can try;
 4. Prayer is the Christian's vi - tal breath, The Christian's na - tive air;

The mo - tion of a hid - den fire, That trembles in the breast.
 The up - ward glanc - ing of an eye, When none but God is near.
 Prayer the sublimest strains that reach The Ma - jes - ty on high.
 His watchword at the gate of death: He en - ters heav'n with prayer. A - men.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
 Returning from his ways,
 While angels in their songs rejoice,
 And cry, "Behold he prays."

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
 The Life, the Truth, the Way!
 The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
 "Lord, teach us how to pray."

 Bright with Thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs,

 2. Have we tri - als and temp-ta - tions?      Is there trouble an - y - where?
 3. Are we weak and heav-y - la - den,      Cumbered with a load of care?

1. O for a thousand tongues to sing My dear Re-deem-er's praise,
 2. My gra-cious Mas-ter and my God, As-sist me to pro-claim,
 3. Je-sus, the name that charms our fears, That bids our sor-rows cease;

The glo-ries of my God and King, The triumphs of His grace!
 To spread thro' all the earth a-broad, The hon-ors of Thy name.
 'Tis mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, 'Tis life, and health, and peace. A-men.

4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,
 He sets the prisoner free;

 hour of eve, When, on the wings of prayer up - borne, Thee for - given; Then dost Thou cheer my sol - i - tude want I find; What strength for war - fare, balm for grief,

The hour of prayer? the hour of prayer?
 The world I leave, the world I leave.
 With hopes of heaven, with hopes of heaven.
 What peace of mind, what peace of mind. A - men.

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
 My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
 And e'en the penitential tear
 Is wiped away, is wiped away.

6 Lord, till I reach that blissful shore,
 No privilege so dear shall be
 As thus my inmost soul to pour
 In prayer to Thee, in prayer to Thee.

263. MY LIFE FLOWS ON 8 7 8 7 D.

Anon.

Robert Lowry

1. My life flows on in end-less song, Above earth's la-men-ta-tion;
 2. What tho' my joys and com-forts die? The Lord my Sav-iour liv-eth;
 3. I lift my eyes; the cloud grows thin; I see the blue a-bove it;

I catch the sweet, tho' far-off hymn That hails a new cre-a-tion;
 What tho' the dark-ness gath-er round? Songs in the night He giv-eth;
 And day by day this pathway smooths, Since first I learned to love it;

Through all the tu-mult and the strife, I hear the mu-sic ring-ing;
 No storm can shake my in-most calm, While to that ref-uge cling-ing;
 The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, A foun-tain ev-er spring-ing;

It finds an ech-o in my soul, How can I keep from sing-ing?
 Since Christ is Lord of heav'n and earth, How can I keep from sing-ing?
 All things are mine since I am His, How can I keep from sing-ing? A-men.

Joseph Grigg, 1765 : alt. by Benjamin Francis, 1787

 2. A-shamed of Je - sus! soon - er far Let evening blush to own a star:
 3. A-shamed of Je - sus, that dear Friend On whom my hopes of heav'n de-pend!

Ashamed of Thee whom an-gels praise, Whose glories shine thro' endless days!

 No; when I blush, be this my shame, That I no more re-vere His name. A-men.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may

 No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
 No fears to quell, no soul to save.

5 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
 Till then I boast a Saviour slain;
 And O may this my glory be,
 That Christ is not ashamed of me.

275. ARLINGTON C. M.

John Newton

Thomas A. Arne, 1762

1. A - maz-ing grace! how sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me!
 2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears re - lieved;
 3. Thro' man - y dan - gers, toils, and snares I have al - read - y come;

I once was lost, but now am found— Was blind, but now I see.
 How pre-cious did that grace ap-pear, The hour I first be - lieved!
 'Twas grace that brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home. A-men.

4 The Lord has promised good to me,
 His word my hope secures;
 He will my shield and portion be,
 As long as life endures.

5. Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
 And mortal life shall cease,
 I shall possess within the veil
 A life of joy and peace.

 From distrust and envy free,
 Pleased with all that pleases Thee.

2 What Thou shalt to-day provide
 Let me as a child receive;
 What to-morrow may betide
 Calmly to Thy wisdom leave:
 'Tis enough that Thou wilt care;
 Why should I the burden bear?

 Fears to stir a step alone,—
 Let me thus with Thee abide,
 As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

297. EVAN C. M.

John Newton

William Henry Havergal, 1846

1. Sweet was the time when first I felt The Saviour's pardoning blood
2. Soon as the morn the light re-vealed, His prais-es tuned my tongue;
3. In prayer my soul drew near the Lord, And saw His glo-ry shine;

Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt, And bring me home to God.
 And when the evening shades prevailed, His love was all my song.
 And when I read His ho-ly word, I called each promise mine. A - men.

4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
 My soul in darkness mourns;
 And when the morn the light reveals,
 No light to me returns.

5 Rise, Lord, and help me to prevail;
 O make my soul Thy care;
 I know Thy mercy cannot fail;
 Let me that mercy share.

Anne Steele

John Bacchus Dykes, 1867

1. O let our thoughts and wish-es fly A-bove these gloom-y shades,
 2. There joys un-seen by mor-tal eyes, Or rea-son's fee-ble ray,
 3. Lord, send a beam of light di-vine To guide our up-ward aim!
 4. O then, on faith's sub-lim-est wing, Our ar-dent souls shall rise

To those bright worlds be-yond the sky, Which sor-row ne'er in-vades.
 In ev-er-blooming pros-pect rise, Ex-posed to no de-cay.
 With one re-viv-ing look of Thine, Our languid hearts in-flame.

299. BELMONT C. M.

William Cowper, 1772

William Gardiner, 1812

1. O for a clos-er walk with God, A calm and heav'n-ly frame,
 2. Where is the bless-ed-ness I knew When first I saw the Lord?
 3. Re-turn, O ho-ly Dove; re-turn, Sweet mes-sen-ger of rest:

A light to shine up-on the road That leads me to the Lamb!
 Where is the soul-re-fresh-ing view Of Je-sus and His word?
 I hate the sins that made Thee mourn And drove Thee from my breast. A-men.

4 The dearest idol I have known,
 Whate'er that idol be,
 Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
 And worship only Thee.

5 So shall my walk be close with God,
 Calm and serene my frame;
 So purer light shall mark the road
 That leads me to the Lamb.

1. My God and Fa - ther, while I stray Far from my home in life's rough way,

4 If Thou should'st call me to resign
 What most I prize, it ne'er was mine;

 Blend it with Thine, and take away
 All that now makes it hard to say,
 "Thy will be done."

5 If but my fainting heart be blest
 With Thy good Spirit for its guest,
 My God, to Thee I leave the rest;

 I'll sing upon a happier shore,
 "Thy will be done."

 Twelve val-i-ant saints, their hope they knew, And mock'd the cross and flame:

Who best can drink his cup of woe, Tri-um-ph-ant o-ver pain,

346. ST. ALBAN 6 5 6 5 6 5 D.

Henry Alford, 1871

Arr. fr. Franz Joseph Haydn by John Bacchus Dykes, 1868

1. Forward! be our watchword, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things before us,
 2. Forward, flock of Je - sus, Salt of all the earth, Till each yearning pur - pose
 3. Glo - ries up - on glo - ries Hath our God pre - pared, By the souls that love Him

Not a look be - hind. Burns the fier - y pil - lar At our ar - my's head;
 Spring to glorious birth. Sick, they ask for heal - ing; Blind, they grope for day;
 One day to be shared: Eye hath not be - held them, Ear hath nev - er heard;

Who shall dream of shrinking, By our Captain led? Forward thro' the des - ert, Pour up - on the na - tions Wisdom's loving ray. Forward, out of er - ror, Nor of these hath ut - tered Thought or speech a word. Forward, marching eastward Thro' the toil and fight! Jordan flows be - fore us; Zi - on beams with light.

 Leave behind the night; Forward thro' the darkness, Forward in - to light!
 Where the heav'n is bright, Till the veil be lift - ed, Till our faith be sight. A - men.

1. Where cross the crowd-ed ways of life, Where sound the cries of race and clan,
2. In haunts of wretched-ness and need, On shadowed thresholds dark with fears,
3. From ten-der childhood's help-less-ness, From woman's grief, man's burdened toil,
4. The cup of wa-ter giv'n for Thee Still holds the fresh-ness of Thy grace;

A - bove the noise of self-ish strife, We hear Thy voice, O Son of Man.
 From paths where hide the lures of greed, We catch the vision of Thy tears.
 From famished souls, from sorrow's stress, Thy heart has never known recoil.
 Yet long these mul-ti-tudes to see The sweet compassion of Thy face. A - men.

 Make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
 Among these restless throngs abide,

 Till glorious from Thy heaven above,

 How many of the sons of men Hear not the message sent from Thee.
 A wand'ring flock, and bring them all To the Good Shepherd's peaceful fold. A-men.

 To awe the bold, to stay the weak,

1. How pleasant, how di-vine-ly fair, O Lord of hosts, Thy dwellings are!
 2. Blest are the saints who sit on high, A-round Thy throne of maj-es-ty;
 3. Blest are the souls who find a place With-in the tem-ple of Thy grace;

With long de-sire my spir-it faints, To meet th'assemblies of Thy saints.
 Thy b.ightest glories shine a-bove, And all their work is praise and love.
 There they behold Thy gentler rays, And seek Thy face, and learn Thy praise. A-men.

- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate;
 God is their strength, and through the road They lean upon their helper, God.
- 5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength Till all shall meet in heaven at length,
 Till all before Thy face appear, And join in nobler worship there.

371. WARD L. M.

Isaac Watts, 1719

Old Scotch Melody: Arr. by Lowell Mason, 1830

1. God is the ref-uge of His saints, When storms of sharp dis-tress in-vade;
 2. Loud may the troubled o-cean roar; In sa cred peace our souls a-bide;
 3. There is a stream whose gentle flow Sup-plies the cit-y of our God,

Ere we can of-fer our complaints, Be-hold Him present with His aid.
 While ev-'ry na-tion, ev-'ry shore, Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.
 Life, love, and joy, still gliding thro', And watering our di-vine a-bode. A-men.

- 4 That sacred stream, Thine holy word, Our grief allays, our fear controls;
 Sweet peace Thy promises afford, And give new strength to fainting souls.
- 5 Zion enjoys her monarch's love, Secure against a threatening hour;
 Nor can her firm foundation move, Built on His truth, and arm'd with power.

(CHRISTMAS)

3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
 That calls thee from on high;
 'Tis His own hand presents the prize
 To thine uplifted eye:

4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
 Which shall new lustre boast,

When victor's wreaths and monarchs' gems
 Shall blend in common dust.

5 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee,
 Have I my race begun;
 And, crowned with victory, at Thy feet
 I'll lay my honors down.

1. Hark, how the watch-men cry! At-tend the trum-pet's sound!
 2. See, on the moun-tain top, The stand-ard of your God!
 3. His standard-bear-ers, now To all the na-tions call:
 4. Go up with Christ, your Head, Your Captain's foot-steps see;

Stand to your arms, the foe is nigh; The pow'rs of hell sur-round.
 In Je-sus' name 'tis lift-ed up, All stained with hallowed blood.
 To Je-sus' cross, ye nation's, bow; He bore the cross for all.
 Fol-low your Cap-tain, and be led To cer-tain vic-to-ry. A-men.

399. SILVER STREET S. M.

Charles Wesley, 1749

Isaac Smith, 1770

1. Sol-diers of Christ, a-rise, And put your ar-mor on;
 2. Strong in the Lord of hosts, And in His might-y power;
 3. Stand, then, in His great might, With all His strength en-dued;

Strong in the strength which God sup-plies, Thro' His e-ter-nal Son.
 Who in the strength of Je-sus trusts Is more than con-quer-or.
 And take, to arm you for the fight, The pan-o-ply of God: A-men.

 And all your conflicts past,
 Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
 And stand complete at last.

 Tread all the powers of darkness down,
 And win the well-fought day.

 All that liberal autumn pours From her rich o'er-flow-ing stores: A-men.

5 Peace, prosperity and health,
 Private bliss, and public wealth,
 Knowledge with its gladdening streams,
 Pure religion's holier beams:

6 These to Thee, my God, we owe,
 Source whence all our blessings flow;
 And for these my soul shall raise Grateful vows and solemn praise.

450. ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR 7 7 7 7 D.

Henry Alford, 1844

George J. Elvey, 1868

1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home:
 2. All the world is God's own field, Fruit un-to His praise to yield;

All is safe-ly gath-ered in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin;
 Wheat and tares to-geth-er sown, Un-to joy or sor-row grown:

God, our Mak-er, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied:
 First the blade, and then the ear, Then the full corn shall ap-pear:

Come to God's own tem-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home.
 Lord of har-vest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be. A-men.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take His harvest home;
 From His field shall in that day
 All offences purge away;
 Give His angels charge at last
 In the fire the tares to cast,
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
 To Thy final harvest-home;
 Gather Thou Thy people in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin;
 There for ever purified,
 In Thy presence to abide:
 Come, with all Thine angels, come,
 Raise the glorious harvest-home.

1. Great God of na-tions, now to Thee Our hymn of grat-i - tude we raise,
 2. Thy name we bless, al-might-y God, For all the kind-ness Thou hast shown
 3. Here freedom spreads her banner wide, And casts her soft and hal - lowed ray, -

With humble heart and bending knee, We offer Thee our song of praise.
 To this fair land the pilgrims trod, This land we fondly call our own.
 Here Thou our fathers' steps didst guide In safety thro' their dangerous way. A - men.

- 4 We praise Thee, that the Gospel's light Through all our land its radiance sheds, Dispels the shades of error's night, And heavenly blessings round us spreads.
- 5 Great God! preserve us in Thy fear;
 In dangers still our guardian be;
 O spread Thy truth's bright precepts here;
 Let all the people worship Thee.

 2. He formed the stars, those heavenly flames; He counts their numbers, calls their names;

His nature and His works in-vite To make this du-ty our de-light.
 His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound, A deep where all our thoughts are drowned. A - men.

- 3 Sing to the Lord! exalt Him high,
 Who spreads His clouds along the sky;
 There He prepares the fruitful rain,
 Nor lets the drops descend in vain.

 He clothes the smiling fields with corn:
 The beasts with food His hands supply,
 And the young ravens when they cry.

1. Sol-diers of the cross, a-rise! Gird you with your ar-mor bright;
2. To the wea-ry and the worn Tell of realms where sor-rows cease;
3. Guard the help-less; seek the strayed; Com-fort troubles; ban-ish grief;

Might-y are your en-e-mies, Hard the bat-tle ye must fight.
To the out-cast and for-lorn Speak of mer-cy and of peace.

2. Grant us Thy light, that we may see Where er - ror lurks in hu - man lore,
3. Grant us Thy light, that we may learn How dead is life from Thee a - part;

That truth may guide where'er we go, And vir-tue bless where'er we live.
And turn our doubting minds to Thee, And love Thy sim-ple word the more.
How sure is joy for all who turn To Thee an - di - vid ed heart. A - men.

To lift our burdened hearts above,
And count the very cross a gain,
And bless our Father's hidden love.

All earthly scenes shall pass away,
In Thee to find the open gate
To deathless home and endless day.

Adapted fr. Thomas Hastings, 1832

1. O Thou who didst life's tasks ful - fil, Didst share the hopes of youth,
2. The call is Thine: be Thou the Way, And Thine the minds that guide;
3. Who learns of Thee the truth shall find, Who fol - lows, wins the goal;

Our Sav-iour and our Broth-er still, Now lead us in - to truth.
Let wis-dom broaden with the day, Let hu-man faith a - bide.
With reverence crown the earnest mind, And speak within the soul. A - men.

- 4 Awake the purpose high which strives,
And, falling, stands again;

Thy name, proclaimed by every lip,
The Master of our schools.

1. Shep-herd of ten-der youth,    Guid-ing in love and truth
 2. Thou art our ho-ly Lord,    The all-sub-du-ing Word,
 3. Thou art the Great High Priest;    Thou hast pre-pared the feast

Through de-vi-ous ways:    Christ, our tri-um-ph-ant King,    We come Thy Heal-er of strife:    Thou didst Thy-self a-base,    That from sin's Of heav-en-ly love:    In all our mor-tal pain    None call on name to sing;    And here our children bring    To shout Thy praise.

 deep dis-grace    Thou mightest save our race,    And give us life.
 Thee in vain,    Help Thou dost not dis-dain,    Help from a-bove.    A-men.

4 Ever be Thou our Guide,
 Our Shepherd and our Pride,
 Our Staff and Song:
 Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
 By Thy perennial word,
 Lead us where Thou hast trod;
 Make our faith strong.

5 So now, and till we die,
 Sound we Thy praises high,
 And joyful sing:
 Children, and the glad throng
 Who to Thy church belong,
 Unite and swell the song
 To Christ our King.

*This beautiful hymn from the third book of Clement of Alexandria, is said to be the earliest known hymn of the Primitive Christian Church (about 200). Tr. by Henry Martyn Dexter, 1846

Henry K. Oliver, 1832

1. E - ter-nal Source of ev - 'ry joy, Well may Thy praise our lips em-ploy,
 2. The flow'ry spring, at Thy com-mand, Perfumes the air and paints the land;
 3. Thy hand in au-tumn rich - ly pours Thro' all our coasts re-dun-dant stores:

While in Thy tem-ple we ap-pear, Whose goodness crowns the cir-cling year.
 The summer rays with vig-or shine, To raise the corn and cheer the vine.
 And winters, softened by Thy care, No more a face of hor-ror wear. A-men.

- 4 Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days, Demand successive songs of praise;
 And be the grateful homage paid,
 With morning light and evening shade.
- 5 Here in Thy house let incense rise,
 And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes;
 Till to those lofty heights we soar,
 Where days and years revolve no more.

501. SAXBY L. M.

Anon.

Timothy R. Matthews, 1883

1. Thy prov-i-dence, great God, we praise, How good and great are all Thy ways!
 2. Thy promise stands for-ev - er fast, While sun and moon, and earth shall last;
 3. Summer and win-ter, cold and heat, And night and day in or - der meet;
 4. When years are past, and seasons o'er, We still shall prove Thy covenant sure;

Thy bounty crowns our passing years, And dissipates our anxious fears.
 The laws of seasons shall en-dure, Till time and stars are known no more.
 Seed-time, and harvest, each succeed, To prove Thy love—supply our need.
 And in the shining realms of bliss, Adore Thy goodness and Thy grace. A - men.

508. SOLNEY 8787.

From the Latin

Johann A. P. Schulz, (1747-1800)

1. Lo, the day of Christ's ap pear-ing, Day of life and day of light,
 2. See the King de-sired for a-ges, By the just ex-pect-ed long,
 3. O how past all utterance hap-py, Sweet and joy-ful it will be

- Day when death it-self shall per-ish, Day which ne'er shall set in night.
 Long im-plored, at length He hasteth, Com-eth with sal-va-tion strong.
 When they who, un-seen, have loved Him, Je-sus face to face shall see. A-men.

- 4 Blessed then, earth's patient mourners,
 Who for Christ have toiled and died,
 Driven by the world's rough pressure
 In those mansions to abide.
- 5 What will be the bliss and rapture
 None can dream and none can tell,
 There to reign among the angels,
 In that heavenly home to dwell.

509. NAOMI C. M.

Isaac Watts, 1709

Arr. by Lowell Mason, 1836

1. Give me the wings of faith, to rise With-in the veil, and see
 2. Once they were mourning here be-low, And wet their couch with tears;
 3. I ask them whence their vic-t'ry came; They, with u-nit-ed breath,

- The saints a-bove—how great their joys, How bright their glories be.
 They wrestled hard, as we do now, With sins, and doubts, and fears.
 As-cribe their con-quest to the Lamb, Their tri-umph to His death. A-men.

- 4 They marked the footsteps that He trod;
 His zeal inspired their breast;
 And, following their incarnate God,
 Possess the promised rest.
- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
 For His own pattern given,
 While the long cloud of witnesses
 Shows the same path to heaven.

545. ALL THE WAY 8 7 8 7 D. With Refrain.

Fanny J. Crosby, 1875

Robert Lowry, 1875

1. All the way my Sav-iour leads me; What have I to ask be-side?
 2. All the way my Sav-iour leads me, Cheers each wind-ing path I tread;
 3. All the way my Sav-iour leads me; O the ful-ness of His love!

Can I doubt His ten-der mer-cy Who thro' life has been my guide?
 Gives me grace for ev-'ry tri-al, Feeds me with the liv-ing bread;
 Per-fect rest to me is prom-ised In my Fa-ther's house a-bove;

Heav'n-ly peace, di-vin-est com-fort, Here by faith in Him to dwell!
 Though my wea-ry steps may fal-ter, And my soul a-thirst may be,
 When my spir-it, clothed, im-mor-tal, Wings its flight to realms of day,

For I know, what-e'er be-fall me, Je-sus do-eth all things well;
 Gush-ing from the Rock be-fore me, Lo! a spring of joy I see;
 This my song thro' end-less a-ges— Je-sus led me all the way;

For I know, what-e'er be-fall me, Je-sus do-eth all things well.
 Gush-ing from the Rock be-fore me, Lo! a spring of joy I see.
 This my song thro' end-less a-ges— Je-sus led me all the way.

T. C. O'Kane

1. On Jor-dan's storm-y banks I stand, And cast a wish-ful eye

To Ca-naan's fair and hap-py land, Where my pos-ses-sions lie.
 There God, the Son, for-ev-er reigns, And scat-ters night a-way.
 When shall I see my Fa-ther's face, And in His bo-som rest?
 Though Jor-dan's waves a-round me roll, Fear-less I'd launch a-way.

When I shall lay my ar-mor by, And dwell in peace at home?
 This world's a wil-der-ness of woe, This world is not my home.

578. CROWN HIM 8 7 8 7. With Refrain.

Thomas Kelly, 1809

Arr. by George C. Stebbins

1. Look, ye saints; the sight is glo-ri-ous: See the Man of Sor-rows now;
 2. Crown the Sav-i-our, an-gels crown Him; Rich the trophies Je-sus brings;
 3. Sin-ners in de-ri-sion crown'd Him, Mock-ing thus the Saviour's claim,
 4. Hark, those bursts of ac-cla-ma-tion! Hark, those loud triumphant chords!

From the fight re-tur-ned vic-to-ri-ous, Ev-'ry knee to Him shall bow:
 In the seat of pow'r enthrone Him, While the vault of heav-en rings:
 Saints and an-gels crowd a-round Him, Own His ti-tle, praise His name:
 Je-sus takes the high-est sta-tion; O what joy the sight af-fords!

Eden R. Latta
Moderato.

Henry S. Perkins

1. Bless-ed be the Fountain of blood, To a world of sin - ners re-vealed;
2. Thorn-y was the crown that He wore, And the cross His bod - y o'er-came;
3. Fa - ther, I have wandered from Thee, Oft - en has my heart gone a - stray;

Bless-ed be the dear Son of God: On - ly by His stripes we are healed.
Grievous were the sor-rows He bore, But He suffered thus not in vain.
Crim-son do my sins seem to me— Wa-ter can not wash them a - way.

Tho' I've wandered far from His fold, Bringing to my heart pain and woe,
May I to that Fountain be led, Made to cleanse my sins here be-low;
Je - sus, to that Fountain of Thine, Lean-ing on Thy prom-ise I go;

Wash me in the blood of the Lamb, And I shall be whit - er than snow.
Wash me in the blood that He shed, And I shall be whit - er than snow.
Cleanse me by Thy wash - ing di - vine, And I shall be whit - er than snow.

580. FEDERAL STREET No. 274

- 1 God calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumber lie?
- 2 God calling yet! and shall He knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?

I wait, but He does not forsake;

THE LORD'S PRAYER

St. Matthew 6: 9-13

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

THE BEATITUDES

St. Matthew 5 1-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven:
for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

THE COMMANDMENTS

Exodus 20: 1-17

God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

---

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. St. Matthew 22: 37-40

An Exhortation to Praise God

Psalm 96.

O sing unto the Lord a new song:
sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; show forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders among all the peoples.

For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the peoples, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

Say among the nations that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the peoples righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth:
he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

Praise and Adoration

Psalm 103.

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

Scripture Readings

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

Love and Gratitude

Psalms 116.

I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:

I said in my haste, All men are liars.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people,

In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

The Lord's Day

Ex. 16: 4, 5.

Then said the Lord unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

Ex. 16: 22, 23.

And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

And he said unto them, This is that which the Lord hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake to day, and boil that which ye will boil; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

Ex. 16: 26-30.

Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

And the Lord said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

See, for that the Lord hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

So the people rested on the seventh day.

St. Mark 2: 23-28.

And it came to pass, that he went through the grain fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.

And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungered, he, and they that were with him?

How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the showbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him?

And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

St. Mark 3: 1-5.

And he entered again into a synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.

And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

And he saith unto the man who had the withered hand, Stand forth.

And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath day, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

The Father Almighty

Psalms 135: 1-6.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the name of the Lord; praise him, O ye servants of the Lord.

Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God, Praise the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

Psalms 139: 1-12.

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Scripture Readings

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

Psalm 139: 17, 18.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Psalm 139: 23, 24.

Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

SIXTH READING

Fatherhood and Providence

Psalm 91.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

SEVENTH READING

The Incarnate Word

St. John 1: 1-14.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

The true Light was he who, coming into the world, enlighteneth every man.

He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the children of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Christmas Tidings

St. Luke 2: 8-20.

Now, there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, an angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all peoples.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

The Good Shepherd

Psalm 23.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

St. John 10: 7-16.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

But he that is an hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine,

Even as the Father knoweth me and I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And other sheep I have, that are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.

The Temptation of Jesus

St. Matt. 4: 1-11.

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered.

And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Then the devil taketh him into the holy city, and setteth him on the pinnacle of the temple,

And saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

Zech. 9: 9.

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation.

Isa. 61: 1-3.

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek;

He hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

St. Mark 11: 1-11.

And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strewed them in the way.

And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

The Suffering Saviour

Isa. 53.

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

He was taken away through oppression and judgment: and who of his generation considereth that he was cut off out of the land of the living? that for the transgression of my people he was stricken?

And they made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death; and he was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

The Crucifixion

St. Luke 23: 33-49.

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ, the chosen of God.

And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,

And saying, If thou art the king of the Jews, save thyself.

And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up his spirit.

Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

Easter Morning

St. Mark 16: 1-15.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.

And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

And they went and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

The Resurrection

1 Cor. 15: 20-26.

But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those fallen asleep.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's at his coming.

Then, finally, when he delivereth up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he has done away every rule, and every authority and power,

For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet,

The last enemy, death, is destroyed.

1 Cor. 15: 49-57.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Great High Priest

Phil. 2: 5-11.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus,

Who, being in the form of God, did not reckon his equality with God a thing to be clung to;

But emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men;

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him that name which is above every name;

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of beings in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth;

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Heb. 7: 24-27.

But he, because he abideth for ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost who come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's; for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself.

Heb. 4: 14-16.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace for help in time of need.

The Holy Spirit

St. John 14: 15-17, 26.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

The Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

St. John 16: 8-14.

And when he is come, he will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

Of sin, because they believe not on me;

Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

Of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

The Fruits of the Spirit

Gal. 5: 16-25.

Now I say, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the desire of the flesh.

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye may not do the things that ye would.

But if ye are led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I tell you beforehand, as I have also told you in time past, that they that do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

NINETEENTH READING

The Holy Scriptures

Psalms 19: 7-14.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Psalms 119: 97-105.

O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

2 Tim. 3: 14-16.

But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou hast learned;

And that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

Heb. 4: 12.

For the word of God is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and judgeth the thoughts and reasonings of the heart.

TWENTIETH READING

Provisions of the Gospel

Rom. 5: 1-21.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

Through whom also we have had our access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit that hath been given unto us.

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified in his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved through his life.

And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Wherefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all sinned;

For prior to the law sin was in the world, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law.

Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come.

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto the many.

And not as through one that sinned is the gift; for the judgment was through one unto condemnation, but the free gift is from many offences unto justification.

For if by the offence of the one, death reigned by the one, much more they who receive the abundance of the grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

Therefore as in result one offence reached unto all men unto condemnation, even so the one righteous act reaches unto all unto justification of life.

For as by the one man's disobedience the many were constituted sinners, so by the obedience of the one shall the many be constituted righteous.

Moreover the law came in by the way, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

That as sin hath reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

God's Gracious Invitation

Isa. 55.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the people.

Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

The Cry of the Penitent

Psalm 51.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

The Returning Prodigal

St. Luke 15: 11-24.

And he said, A certain man had two sons:

And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

And he would fain have been filled with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

The Necessity of Regeneration

St. John 3: 1-17.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things?

And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

TWENTY-FIFTH READING

The Victories of Faith

Heb. 11: 1-10.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

For by it the men of old obtained a good testimony.

Through faith we understand that the worlds were planned by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he, being dead, yet speaketh.

By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he had pleased God.

But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterward receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, living in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise;

For he waited for the city which hath the foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Heb. 11: 24-30.

By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked away to the recompence.

By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

Through faith he kept the pass-over, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land; which the Egyptians attempting to do, were drowned.

By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

Heb. 11: 32-40.

And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of

Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah; David also, and Samuel, and the prophets;

Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection;

And others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment.

They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

(Of whom the world was not worthy); they wandered in deserts, and mountains, and dens and caves of the earth.

And these all, having obtained a good testimony through faith, received not the promise:

God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

Blessed Assurance

Psalm 27.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret place of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

The Consecrated Life

Rom. 12.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another.

Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

Or ministry, let us be occupied with the ministry; or he that teacheth, with teaching;

Or he that exhorteth, with exhortation; he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be unfeigned. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

Rejoicing in the hope; patient in tribulation; persevering in prayer;

Contributing to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but go along with the lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

But, If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Scripture Readings

glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

I have manifested thy name unto the men that thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them that thou hast given me; for they are thine.

And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them in thy truth: thy word is truth.

As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified in truth.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also that shall believe on me through their word;

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

A Prayer for Deliverance

Psalm 40.

I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,

I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified.

But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

Prayer and Providence

Psalm 34.

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

Christ's Teaching on Prayer

St. Luke 18: 1-14.

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that they ought always to pray, and not to faint;

Saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, neither regarded man:

And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

And shall not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find the faith on the earth?

And he spake this parable unto certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I gain.

And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Confessing Christ—Witnessing

St. Matt. 10: 16-33.

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony unto them and the Gentiles.

But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaketh in you.

And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

And fear not them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

THIRTY-THIRD READING

The Believer's Aspiration

Phil. 3: 1-16.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To be writing the same things to you, to me is not burdensome, while for you it is safe.

Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the concision.

For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

And furthermore, I consider all things to be loss for the sake of the surpassing knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but refuse, that I may win Christ,

And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God, through faith;

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection from the dead.

Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended but this one thing; forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk in the same steps.

THIRTY-FOURTH READING

Manifestation of Christian Love

1 John 4: 1-21.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus is the Christ, come in flesh, is of God;

And every spirit that confesseth not Jesus is not from God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already it is in the world.

Ye are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world; therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

Herein hath love been perfected with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, so are we in this world.

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not perfected in love.

We love, because he first loved us.

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar:

for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen.

And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

Trust and Security

Psalms 125.

They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

Psalms 121.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help?

My help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Suffering and Resignation

2 Cor. 4: 7-18.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing greatness of the power may be of God, and not from us.

We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

Always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

And having the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

Knowing that he that raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also through Jesus, and shall present us with you.

For all things are for your sake, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Trials and Triumphs

Rom. 8: 14-18.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God;

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed unto us.

Rom. 8: 31-39.

What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things?

Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? Shall God, that justifieth?

Who is he that condemneth? Is it Christ, who died, yea rather, who is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Eph. 6: 10-18.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the princes of this present world, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

In addition to all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints;

Eph. 6: 23, 24.

Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

And Jesus answering said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Christ-like Service and Reward

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

And before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth the sheep from the goats:

And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

O Lord, God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Scripture Readings

For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Psalm 24.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

St. Luke 4: 16-22.

And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read.

And there was delivered unto him the roll of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the roll, he found the place where it was written,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

And he folded the roll, and he gave it again to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth.

Revive Thy Work, O Lord

Rev. 3: 1-5.

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write: These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die; for I have not found thy works completed before my God.

Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

But thou hast a few names even in Sardis that have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy.

He that overcometh shall thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not blot his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Rev. 3: 14-21.

And unto the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God:

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot.

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I spew thee out of my mouth.

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked;

I counsel thee to buy of me gold purified by fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock. If any one hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in unto him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

O Lord, I have heard thy fame, and was afraid: O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

Psalms 84: 4-9.

Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

Show us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

I will hear what God the Lord will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

The Lord's Supper

St. Luke 22: 7-20.

Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.

FORTY-FOURTH READING

Union with Christ

St. John 15: 1-17.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Even now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

These things I command you, that ye love one another.

The Fellowship of Christians

Col. 3: 1-17.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory .

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry :

For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the sons of disobedience ;

In which ye also once walked, when ye lived among them.

But now put ye off also all these : anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds ;

And have put on the new, which is renewed unto full knowledge according to the image of him that created him ;

Wherein there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free : but Christ is all, and in all.

Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender-heartedness, kindness, humble-ness of mind, meekness, long-suffering ;

Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any one have a grievance against another ; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

And over all these put on love, which is the perfect bond of union.

And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also ye have been called in one body ; and be ye thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly ; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another ; in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father by him.

FORTY-SIXTH READING

Faith and Works

St. James 1 : 22-27.

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a mirror ;

For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his doing.

If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

St. James 2: 14-24, 26.

What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can such faith save him?

If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

Also, one may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.

Thou believest that God is one; thou doest well: the demons also believe, and shudder.

But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works faith was perfected?

And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the friend of God.

Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith alone.

For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Grace of Charity

1 Cor. 13: 1-13.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

For now we see as through a glass, dimly; but then face to face; now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The Missionary Psalm

Psalm 72: 1-19.

Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the River unto the ends of the earth.

They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen.

The Great Commission and Evangelism

St. Matt. 28: 18-20.

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All authority is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Go ye therefore, and disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

Rom. 10: 1-4.

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is, that they might be saved.

For I bear them witness that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

For, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own, they have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Rom. 10: 11-17.

For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

For there is no difference between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

For, whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Christian Stewardship

Mal. 3: 8-10.

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

2 Cor. 8: 12-15.

For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened;

But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, and that their abundance may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality:

As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

2 Cor. 9: 6-11.

But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully;

Let each one do according as he purposeth in his heart; not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver.

And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency, in all things, may abound to every good work;

As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

And he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;

Ye being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

An Appeal to Youth

Ecc. 12: 1-7.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

And the doors shall be shut in the street, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Ecc. 12: 13, 14.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

1 Kings 8: 22, 23.

And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven:

And he said, Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart:

1 Kings 8: 26-30.

And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

But will God in very truth dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant; and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee this day:

That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place.

And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God,

And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner-stone,

In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

National Thanksgiving

Psalms 107.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Scripture Readings

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that

He turneth the wilderness into a

And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

The righteous shall see it, and

And they watched him, and sent forth spies, that should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that

And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but really teachest the way of God:

Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They, answering, said, Cæsar's.

And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

Psalm 46.

Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Temperance and The Curse of Strong Drink

1 Cor. 9: 24-27.

Know ye not that they that run in a race all run, but only one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

And every contestant in the games is temperate in all things. They, indeed, do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air;

But I buffet my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, after having preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Prov. 23: 29-32.

Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babblings? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

Prov. 23: 20-26.

Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

Scripture Readings

Buy the truth and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

The Way of the Righteous

Psalm 1.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 15.

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Education—True Wisdom

Prov. 8: 1-17.

Doth not wisdom cry, and understanding put forth her voice?

On the top of high places by the wayside, in the midst of the streets, she takes her stand;

Beside the gateways, at the entrance of the city, at the coming in at the gates, she crieth aloud:

Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of men.

O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

Scripture Readings

Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing crooked or perverse in them.

They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to her.

I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of discreet thoughts.

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

The Childhood of Jesus

St. Luke 2: 40-52.

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

The Children

St. Matt. 18: 1-6.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

But whoso shall cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

St. Mark 10: 13-16.

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

St. Matt. 21: 12-16.

And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves,

And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye are making it a den of robbers.

And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

Scripture Readings

And when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

Deut. 6: 4-9.

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord:

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

Col. 3: 16-25.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father by him.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

Fathers, provoke not your children lest they be discouraged.

Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

Knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance; for ye serve the Lord Christ.

But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he

SIXTY-SECOND READING

Watch Night and New Year

Psalms 90.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

So teach us to number our days, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

Return, O Lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

SIXTY-THIRD READING

Seed Time and Harvest

Psalm 147.

Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

The Lord lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

SIXTY-FOURTH READING

The Second Coming of Christ

St. John 14: 1-3.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Acts 1: 6-11.

When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own authority.

But ye shall receive power, after the Holy Spirit has come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

Who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, who is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

St. Mark 13: 31-37.

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but only the Father.

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

It is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, to every man his work, and also commanded the porter to watch.

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

1 Thess. 4: 13-18.

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them that are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope.

Scripture Readings

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not go before them that are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first;

Then we that are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Heaven and Eternal Life

Rev. 7: 9-17.

After these things I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no one could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and peoples, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

And all the angels stood round about the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, Who are these that are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they who come out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun smite them, nor any heat.

For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them, and shall lead them unto fountains of waters of life; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.
